WILL OLLIE RUN? IS THE QUESTION

First District in State of Unrest Just Now.

Graves County Situation May Prove Too Much for Western Kentucky's Hopes.

STATE POLITICIANS LISTEN.

Perhaps no part of the state is more vitally interested in the developments of the next few days in the Democratic political situation in Kentucky than the First district.

The interest centers in the fact that Congressman Ollie James' name is persistently connected with the race for governor, and until it is finally settled that he will or will not run, there will be unrest in the political pot of western Kentucky. Already it is boiling and surging with the hopes and fears and aspirations of the ubiquitous receptive candidates for congress, and vague dreams and remote possibilities stream up from the heaving mass of politics, politics, politics.

Will he run? The question gives a different hue to the situation in every county in the First district. In McCracken county a half dozen aspirants begin posting their friends to corral the drift of party sentiment. In Calloway county the clans gather for a struggle for control of the local situation. Ballard county produces a candidate, and the politicians of other counties prepare to take advantage of whatever good things the shifting current of politics bring their way.

In Graves county an entirely different situation is confronted. Graves county has a possible candidate for state office in the person of ex-Sheriff Cook, who is mentioned for state treasurer, and his candidacy may effect the whole state party.

For so long a time that it has become almost a habit western and eastern Kentucky have united in state politics against the middle. General Hays comes from the eastern end of the state and he opened his campaign at Mayfield. The natural deal in a case of this kind is for western Kentucky to choose a state office to offset the governorship, and Hays to promise to deliver to this candidate eastern Kentucky in exchange for western Kentucky's support. Just such a proposition as this is said to have been made at Mayfield to Sheriff Cook's friends, and he now has under advisement the proposition.

Ollie James' availability as a candidate for governor lies in the fact that he is not closely identified with any faction, and it is believed he can command the whole west end of the state. James has met no opposition in the First district to his candidacy for congress and it is thought his personal machine is strong enough to hold his district in line for him for governor. It was his purpose to announce as a candidate not associated with either administration or anti-administration. He has friends in the McCreary and Blackburn faction, while he has never done anything to incur the enmity of the Beckham forces. Being able to hold the First district, the heart of the insurgent territory, and being supported quietly by the state administration, it was believed that he could win hands down over the whole field.

In Graves County. But Graves county has thrown a new light on the race situation. Graves county is the strongest Democratic county in the district. It has no local factional fight on, and Graves county politicians stick to each other through everything. If Sheriff Cook makes an arrangement with the Hays forces, he can depend on the support of his county, and the old habit of dickering with eastern Kentucky will be strong on the old line Democrats of the First district. The loss of Graves county will put a hole in the James boom at the start, and while he has always been able to command his district for congress he will face another condition in his race for governor. Loyalty to his interest in the district will not be allowed to interfere with the aspirations of those who would succeed him. Candidates in each county will align their forces on which ever side of the gubernatorial fence seems to afford the best running, and our Ollie will find his district in the worst turmoil he ever witnessed, with himself forgotten as a factor.

Calloway county has an administration and anti-administration faction;

By the consent of the people of Paducah, The Sun has the largest circulation in the city and county. The average for June was 4072 a day.

Marshall county will support Beckham's ticket while McCracken county probably will go for the administration, all other considerations out of the way. But between the county court faction and the Wheeler-Campbell faction both fighting for the county's influence in the congressional race, the result is difficult to foresee.

Of course, there is always this to be considered: Ollie James controls the congressional committee, at least sufficiently to secure his own nomination. If the committee is empowered to fill a vacancy on the ticket, that would place the choice of his successor in the hands of the committee, and he might in this manner be able to dictate to the district. Should he do this he would be in a position to make terms and silence opposition in every county.

On the other hand if Graves county comes to terms with General Hays, the Graves county politicians might make a deal with other counties that would break up the solid First and place Ollie James outside the running.

Whatever the situation brings forth, it is undeniable that many politicians are hoping to see him run. First district men who desired to get him out of congress and give "somebody else a chance" were first to suggest him as a candidate.

His friends naturally have been watching the state situation for a favorable opening, while the state administration at last seems to have reached the conclusion that James is the man of the hour. The cables between New York and England have been kept hot with advice to make the race and not to make the race. At Frankfort all is quiet, waiting for James to speak, while the Antis are sitting back expectantly, awaiting developments. There is a lull in the two Democratic camps, but there will be some shooting presently and whatever of evil either side is guilty of or cognizant of will be set forth in all its fulness, and the First district will get its share of the gossip.

WATCHMAN

MUST BE STATIONED AT EVERY CROSSING DAY AND NIGHT.

Mayor Yeiser Serves Notice on the Illinois Central Railroad Today.

Watchmen must be kept at the grade crossings of railroads and streets night and day after this. Mayor Yeiser today served notice on the Illinois Central Railroad company that the ordinance must be complied with to the letter.

This action was taken on account of the accident that happened a week ago at the Tennessee street crossing, where no watchman is stationed at night. Two women in a buggy rode onto the tracks and a passenger engine collided with their vehicle, seriously injuring both of them. They claimed they could not see the train until too late and the engineer could not see them.

HERALD MEN SURRENDER.

Are Paroled in Custody of Counsel to Answer to Jury.

New York, July 20.—T. H. Hamblon, editor-in-chief; P. W. Schaefer, general manager; John T. Burke, night editor; George Minor, Sunday editor and M. M. Gilliam, advertising manager of the New York Herald, for whom warrants had been issued at the request of the federal authorities, charging them with violating the postal laws in having deposited in the mails copies of their publication containing "personals" alleged to be obscene, surrendered themselves today to the United States marshal.

ENTIRELY DESTROYED

Town of Syzrna Abandoned by 6,000 Inhabitants.

St. Petersburg, July 20.—The latest reports from Syzrna, which has been burning, state that it is entirely destroyed. Thirty thousand inhabitants fled to surrounding villages or to Samara, Saratoff.

OUT OF POLITICS THE UNION STAYS

Decision Made at the Meeting Held Last Night.

Activity of People Outside Organization May Have Been Partly Responsible.

CONSTITUTION PROHIBITS IT.

The Central Labor union will not participate as a body in local politics. This is understood to be the final determination of the organization at its meeting last night, although members are not saying anything authoritatively about the action. It is stated that the constitution of the organization prohibits political activity.

The question first came up in response to a circular letter from President Gompers, of the Federation of Labor, urging political activity along certain lines, in which union labor solely is interested. But it is understood that some local people with an ax to grind, saw in this suggestion of Gompers what they deemed to be an opportunity to secure the aid of union labor in turning the grind stone and quietly worked on some of the members, whom they considered easy to influence.

This scheme was discovered and the result was that the Central Labor Union decided not to go into politics at all as an organization. Some further consideration to measures for the good of organized labor may be given later.

ICE RIOT IN NEW YORK.

New York, July 20.—Five hundred men, women and children took part in a riot on the east side today, during which they made a raid on a wagon load of ice intended for free distribution among them, and took every pound in the wagon. The crowd was composed of persons holding tickets issued by dispensaries and hospitals entitling them to ice without cost.

HELD UP MAYOR

WARRANT SWORN OUT FOR ILLINOIS CENTRAL.

Was Riding on Broadway Car and Timed String of Cars Obstructing the Way.

Mayor D. A. Yeiser this morning took out a warrant against the Illinois Central road for a breach of ordinance for obstructing the street by permitting a string of cars to cross it. He was riding on the Broadway car and at Eleventh street had to sit and wait the pleasure of the railroad company. Once before the company was arrested for the same offense, but managed to secure a dismissal.

FIRE DODDLY

Is Memphis Typothetae From National Organization.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 20.—The Buffalo Times prints the following exclusive story tonight: Merely as proof that it will not tolerate the least recalcitrance to the demands of the International Typographical union for an eight-hour workday, the United Typothetae of America at this morning's session of its annual convention at the Iroquois hotel, Buffalo, fired the Memphis (Tenn.) Typothetae bodily.

HAIR TURNED WHITE.

Cincinnati Man to Sue Rock Island Road for Big Damages.

Cincinnati, July 20.—Peculiar injuries received in a recent wreck on the Rock Island railroad are causing the once jet black hair of Dan McCarthy, a young traveling man of this city, to turn white and his eyesight is failing steadily. Physicians are unable to give him any relief. Attorneys left here tonight for Chicago to begin suit for large damages on his behalf against the railroad company.

Russian Consuls Decline.

London, July 20.—All markets are flat this afternoon on account of the scare prevailing over the Russian situation. The outlook of Consuls declined. Russian Forces are much weaker.

CRISIS IS REACHED.
St. Petersburg, July 20.—Russia is waiting to see what will be the adoption by the duma of yesterday's address to the people contained in the report of the agrarian commission. While the appeal to the nation was toned down considerably before its passage, the action of the deputies is regarded as a direct challenge to the government. A crisis seems to have been reached in political affairs.

QUAKES CONTINUE.

New Mexican Train Schedules Hampered and Towns Deserted.

El Paso, Tex., July 20.—Earthquakes in New Mexico are causing considerable delay in the operation of trains. Rocks and other debris thrown on the tracks have to be removed before trains can run. Quakes continue at intervals. People are in a state of abject terror. Socorro, a center of the disturbances, is almost depopulated.

PLENTY OF LABOR AT LOCAL WHARF

Roustabouts Return to Work and New Faces Appear.

Chief Collins' "Go To Work" Edict Has Salutary Effect on Lazy Steamboat Hands.

LOCAL PACKETS HAVE HELP.

Old faces, happy once more amid familiar surroundings; new faces, unacquainted with the haunts of industry, line the river front from morning to night—looking for work.

Chief Collins did it. His edict, "go to work," sent the roustabouts down to the wharf and with them went many others, whose previous look out for work had been like their quest for the police, in the nature of a reconnaissance, rather than expectation of a job.

With the advent of hot weather which made living a condition apart from domiciliary residence and complete clothing, roustabouts parted company with work, and Paducah was subjected to an epidemic of petty thefts. This was only a coincidence, but it brought the department of public safety and the river men into harmonious co-operation, with the result that there is plenty of labor for the Paducah packets.

The Fowler lines for a season were reduced to the necessity of employing green white labor, but the work was so hard a new shift was taken on each trip, and the boats were delayed. All the Ohio river lines have been hampered by lack of labor. But now, thanks to the activity in Paducah, there are plenty of laborers at the wharf.

SCRIPPS-M'RAE

PURCHASES CONTROL OF PUBLISHERS' PRESS.

Its Service Now Embraces Five Hundred and Twenty-one Papers in Country.

New York, July 20.—At a special meeting of the directors of the Publishers' Press association yesterday afternoon it was announced that E. W. Scripps and M. A. McRae had purchased a controlling interest in the association. The two associations have worked in harmony. The action of the Scripps-McRae concern is solely to secure the best possible news report for themselves and all the papers associated with them. The association now embraces 521 associated newspapers, comprising outside the Associated Press the only great press association in the United States.

WILL RETURN $400,000.

Chicago Telephone Company Made to Disgorge Overcharges.

Chicago, July 20.—Under the terms of the concession obtained by Mayor Dunne, the Chicago Telephone company will refund at once all excess charges collected from subscribers during the last four and one-half years old. The total amount involved is $400,000.

SHERLOCK HOLMES TAKES OF HIS HAT

Our Own Mayor Something of a Sleuth Himself.

Trails Thief Who Robbed City Hall and Locates Loot in Jailer's Office.

A BUZZ FAN IS DISCOVERED

Mayor D. A. Yeiser in the role of detective did not make a bad job of his undertaking yesterday afternoon when he went out to locate the thief who has been committing crime after crime about the city hall of late. As a result he secured the return of the fine electric buzz-fan taken from the board of public works office, and also discovered the fact that Chief of Police Collins is absent-minded.

Mayor Yeiser went on the warpath yesterday when the fan disappeared. He declared he intended putting on a special policeman to watch the city hall. The mayor then went out on his detective expedition.

The fan was found in Jailer Tom Evitts' possession. The city jailer had an old fan which he had used for some time. Chief Collins wanted a fan for his own use and made an agreement with the jailer to let him carry the fan away. In return Chief Collins informed Jailer Evitts that he might get the fan from the board of public works office when he really needed one.

The hot night suggested the fan and Jailer Evitts took it Wednesday night. He failed to return it yesterday morning and this started the whole trouble.

Chief Collins declared that he forgot the agreement with Jailer Evitts but was finally convinced that he had.

"I guess I am something of a sleuth myself," Mayor Yeiser declared as the fan was brought in and set on his desk, and Chief Collins scratched his head in perplexity.

GENERAL FIGHT

TAKES PLACE AT UNION SCHOOL IN COUNTY.

Four Paducah Boys Mix Up With Score of Farmers and Get Much the Worst of It.

A free-for-all fight took place at Union school house eight miles out on the Hinkleville road last night about 7 o'clock, in which four town boys and about 20 farmers participated. The town boys had been to a picnic and started for their horse and buggy and it is said that they used some rather insulting language towards the farmers. The attack followed. One town boy is said to have been pretty badly used. After the fight the farmers dispersed and the other faction came to Paducah. No names were secured. The matter was reported to the sheriff this morning by telephone linemen who passed just after the affray, but he has been unable to learn anything definite.

MAY USE COOLIE.

Believed That Chinese Exclusion Does Not Apply to Panama.

Washington, July 20.—Chinese labor may be used after all in building the Panama canal. The commission at its latest meeting on the Isthmus considered the advisability of importing coolies from the far east. As a result the matter was referred to Attorney General Moody to determine whether such action is prohibited by the Chinese exclusion and contract labor laws. It is believed neither law applies to the canal zone.

GAS TANK LET GO.

During Preparations for Lecture Killing Two Men.

Greenwood, Ind., July 20.—While preparing for a stereopticon lecture on the San Francisco disaster in a tent here tonight a twenty-gallon tank of gas exploded, instantly killing Rev. D. J. Lewis, proprietor of the company giving the entertainment, his assistant, George McNeenas, 30 years old, and seriously injuring Harry E. Lewis, his son.

INJUNCTION TALK ABOUT CONTRACT

Judge Bagby Says it Does Not Conform to Charter.

Client Decides to Drop Matter for the Present but May Proceed Later On.

MAYOR YEISER SIGNS TODAY.

Steps to enjoin the city from performing its part of the contract with the General Electric company to furnish equipment for the municipal lighting plant, will be taken, according to the statement of Judge E. W. Bagby this afternoon.

At the instance of Judge Bagby, Mayor Yeiser refrained from signing the contract until Judge Bagby could study it in the interest of a client of his whose name he refused to divulge but whom he said was a citizen not interested in any way in the bidding for the contract. About noon Judge Bagby informed Mayor Yeiser that his client had decided not to take the risk of an injunction proceeding at this time.

Later Judge Bagby said: "Although the citizen at whose instance I investigated the contract does not care to introduce proceedings, you may say that an injunction will be taken out to prevent the city paying any money on this contract. The suit will be based on a defect in the proceedings. The charter provides that lights shall be provided for by an ordinance, and there is no ordinance in this case at all—only a simple contract signed by the mayor and approved by the general council.

"If the general council should refuse to pay on this contract after the machinery was installed, I doubt if the General Electric company could collect a cent from the city. In fact, I very much doubt if the company will go ahead with its part of the contract when its representatives learn of this defect in the proceedings of the general council.

"I am not at liberty to state who will bring this injunction suit. I can not say that I will be an attorney in the case. It is certain, however, the injunction will be sought, and I entertain no doubts as to the success of the suit."

When the matter was explained to Alderman Earl Palmer, chairman of the joint light committee, he said:

"It may be as Judge Bagby says, there should have been an ordinance. We proceeded only as we understood our duty. We have just completed a contract for $2,500 worth of hose the same way. We entered into contract and the mayor signed it. Part of the hose has been delivered. If this lighting contract is wrong, that is also. Since no one questioned our procedure in the former case, I am rather inclined to the opinion that the citizen, who is so interested in seeing the letter of the law complied with this time, is not actuated solely by a desire to see the general council proceed according to the constitution. However, we have done our duty as we understood it. It is now up to whoever desires to block the improvement of the electric light plant.

The contract calls for new dynamos and new lamps. Engineer Holmes, employed to prepare specifications for the improvement, reported that the engines and boilers are in condition to support 300 lights. The contract calls for delivery in eight weeks.

MAYOR SIGNS CONTRACT.

Disregarding the advice of interested parties, Mayor Yeiser declared today he will sign the contract and ordinance, although he disapproves them.

He was advised this morning not to attach his signature to the measure but to allow the general council to bring proceedings in mandamus. To this advice Mayor Yeiser replied that he has only one course to pursue and that is to act according to the instructions of the general council.

"I stated my reasons for opposing the contract," he said, "on the floor of the council chamber. The boards have both seen fit to do otherwise than I suggested. It is not for me to decline to perform my sworn duty. I have no discretion in the matter as I see it. If citizens think the contract should not be signed they can enjoin me. Otherwise it will be signed."

And the mayor looked as though he would like to be enjoined.

A very young man likes to be mistaken for a cynic.

The Indians proved "easy pickings" to the Eichenberger Hash Slingers in Slopsville yesterday, according to the dope in the Cairo Bulletin. The fact that baseball has come to life again in Cairo and a brilliant future is painted for the Hash Slingers, made them play ball. They went onto the field with confidence, and the Indians were beaten with ease. The Cairo Bulletin says of the game yesterday:

"Paducah was easy picking for the locals yesterday who with little effort shut them out with ten runs to the good. Woodring pitched remarkable good ball and allowed only three hits and retired 11 men. The locals all had their batting clothes on and landed on the visitors for 13 safe ones.

It all started off in the first when three doubles and a single were gotten off of Dick Brahmie and Dick smilingly walked to the bench, while Miller, Paducah's south paw, replaced him. He stopped the scoring for an inning, but in the third another batting rally was held and three more men crossed the plate. The Indians were unable to do anything. Cairo continued her run-getting in the fifth, sixth and eighth, scoring six more. In addition to Woodring's pitching the features of the game were the catches of Roland, Connor and Quigley, each robbing the visitors of what looked like hits."

QUARREL AND TROUBLES ARE AILED IN POLICE COURT.

Judge Puryear Says They Should Move Away Instead of Coming to Him.

"I am going to dismiss this case but don't you ever let me see you up here again," Police Judge R. H. Puryear stated this morning as he entered up a "dismissed" opposite the name of Jennie Melton who resides near Fourth and Elizabeth streets. Judge Puryear does not believe in family quarrels, and does not intend to tolerate them. If families can not live in peace as neighbors, then they had better move or pay fines, because this is the attitude the police judge takes, and he "means it, too."

Jennie Melton and Victoria Crane are neighbors. They rent from the same landlord and use one hydrant jointly. Clarence Crane, a stepson of the latter woman, amused himself by squirting water from the hydrant into Mrs. Melton's side of the yard. Mrs. Melton had instructions from the property owner to keep the yard sanitary and free from water, and had whipped her children for letting water run from the hydrant. She could not stand to see the neighbor's child enjoying what she forbade to her own offspring, and went out to take matters into her own hands.

The matter proved to be a little too much. It was the Crane youth and he handled the woman rather freely. Just before he could get the proper windup to heave a brick at the Melton woman she caught him. This angered the step-mother and a warrant resulted.

"Family quarrels over such a trivial matter have been frequently brought into courts, and I do not intend to tolerate them," Judge Puryear remarked.

NEWS OF KENTUCKY

Two Feudists Killed.

Lexington, July 20.—News reached here today from Floyd county that Dick Hall and John Thornberry, noted feud leaders, were assassinated as they rode along a lonely mountain pathway. For years a feud existed between the Halls and Thornberrys. A short time ago John Thornberry married into the Hall family.

With Tears in Eyes.

Owensboro, Ky., July 20.—With tears in his eyes Judge Cochran, in the federal court this afternoon, passed sentence on the miners convicted of violating the United States court injunction to prevent them from interfering with the non-union miners in Union county. The men told pitiful stories of want in their homes and how their children were unable to secure the necessities of life. After hearing all the evidence Judge Cochran held a consultation with the attorneys for both sides and finally announced that he would be compelled to fine eight of the men $25 each, while two others he sent to jail for six months.

Freight Wreck Blocks Traffic.

Fulton, Ky., July 20.—Six cars of Illinois Central train No. 143, fast freight in charge of Conductor Clyde and Engineman Long, were wrecked last night on the double trestle north of Clinton, Ky. Three coal cars, one bran, one merchandise and one empty were destroyed. All traffic was delayed 12 hours. A broken flange caused the wreck. Nobody was injured.

VOLEY OF EGGS.

Minneapolis, July 20.—Yesterday's game between Minneapolis and Columbus got no further than the first strike, owing to the demonstration against Umpire Owens who was nearly mobbed after an unpopular decision. There was a monster attendance and when Owens appeared he was greeted with a volley of eggs. One of them hit him in the head and he left the grounds after one strike had been delivered, saying he was hurt. The game was not formally called off nor forfeited.

Pensioners Are Declining.

Washington, D. C., July 20.—There are fewer pensioners on the roll at the present time than at any period since 1893. The list is fast decreasing, having shrunk more than 10,000 during the past year. On July 1, when the last account was made, there were only 986,000 persons drawing pensions. One year ago there were 998,441. During one month of 1904 there were more than 1,000,000 pensioners but since then the total has been steadily declining.

ASSAULT

WAS UNPROVOKED, SO SHANNON, THE VICTIM, CLAIMS.

Bob Hayes Is Arrested on a Serious Charge by Detective Moore—Gives Bond.

Bob Hayes, a well known local barber and semi-professional ball player, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detective T. J. Moore for alleged malicious assault. He is charged with assaulting W. J. Shannon, an Illinois Central machinist at a dance at Wallace park several weeks ago.

Hayes, Shannon and several others went to the dance together and after dancing some time Hayes declared he was hot and wanted to go out into the park for air. He invited Shannon to go with him, and the machinist did. The two sat under a tree some distance from the dancing pavilion and Hayes went further into the park, leaving Shannon alone for a short time.

Shannon alleges that he heard some one coming up from behind him and presumed it was Hayes returning. At this time he was lying on his face in the grass and did not raise up until the foot steps were near. He raised up and was surprised to receive a heavy blow on the head. Shannon thought that he was being attacked by a highwayman, as he had previously exhibited a roll of money. He began to fight and turned around to find he was being assaulted by Hayes, so he claims.

After a battle lasting several minutes Shannon says his assailant fled, taking the machinist's hat with him.

Hayes was taken before Justice Emery and gave bond.

There is a breach of peace charge against him.

New Hose for Department.

Fifteen hundred feet of new fire hose arrived last night and is now at No. 1 fire station awaiting inspection by the committee. This hose is the consignment from the Eureka company and another 1,500 feet is yet to come from the Manhattan company. Chief Wood stated that the committee would have to accept it before it would be distributed.

The West Kentucky Coal Co. and others vs. steamer Woolfolk and eight barges.

Whereas libels were filed in the district court of the United States for the western district of Kentucky, at Paducah, on the 21st and 22nd days of June, 1906, by the West Kentucky Coal company and Mississippi Valley

Marine Railway and Dock company against the steamer Woolfolk and 8 barges, her engines, tackle, apparel and owners, alleging in substance that said steamer Woolfolk and barges were indebted to them in the sum aggregating $2,335.97 for fuel repairs, etc., and that same has never been paid, and prays process against said steamer Woolfolk and barges, and that same may be condemned and sold to pay said claims with costs and expenses.

Now, therefore, in pursuance to the motion under seal of said court to me directed I do hereby give public notice to all persons claiming said steamer Woolfolk and barges, or in any way interested therein, that they may be and appear before the district court of the United States, in the city of Paducah, Ky., on or before the 6th day of August, 1906, at 10 o'clock a. m., of that day then and there to interpose their claims and to make their allegations in that behalf.

Throw Flowers and Snow Balls.

Denver, Col., July 20.—During the Ellis' big parade yesterday the marchers were showered with flowers and snow balls, several carloads of snow having been brought from the Continental Divide to show the diversity of the Colorado climate. The temperature on the street while snow-balling was about 85 degrees.

After a self-made man has finished the job he should make a few friends to be used in case of emergency.

THWARTED IN LOVE; IS SUICIDE

New Yorker Drinks Acid and Leaps Into Lake at St. Joseph.

St. Joseph, Mich., July 20.—Disappointed in love and out of money, Lyon, a traveling salesman for a cement company in New York, today committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid and jumping into Lake Michigan. Lyon had carried a camp stool to the end of the pier and sat there several minutes looking at a picture of a girl and reading a newspaper in which was printed an account of a suicide. Then he partly disrobed, pressed the picture to his lips, drank the acid and plunged into the water. The following note was found on the pier:

"I am a disappointed man. I have nothing to live for. Here I go."

MEASURES FOR PEACE.

Proposed By Russian Socialists' Meeting in London.

London, July 20.—The socialist and labor interparliamentary committee at the resumption of its sessions today adopted a resolution providing that wherever international danger is threatened both the committee and the international socialist bureau will meet simultaneously with the view to urging measures for peace.

GUATEMALA PROSTRATED.

War Has Ruined Business and Crops of the Republic.

Mexico City, July 20.—A journalist from Salvador who has arrived here, passing through Guatemala, says that in case President Cabrera prevents war with Salvador through American intervention, he cannot hope to continue in power. He reports Guatemala prostrated. Business is practically suspended and crops ruined. The president remains heavily guarded and the prisons are filled with suspects. Gen. Toledo will, in any event continue the war, not being bound by international agreement.

AMERICAN PACKERS

Will Practically Be Barred From German Trade.

Berlin, July 20.—The government is not impressed by President Roosevelt's recent assurances to the British grocers' federation regarding American meats and has decided to enforce new and more stringent inspection laws in the case of American packers' products, beginning September 15. This will practically annihilate what remains of the once enormous trade.

Normal School Upheld.

Frankfort, July 20.—Judge Stout of the state fiscal court, today rendered a decision upholding the constitutionality of the legislative act establishing two normal schools in Kentucky.

"Success is avoiding old mistakes."

The board of health instructs the householders to provide themselves with garbage cans, in anticipation of the introduction of the garbage disposal system. It might be well also to instruct them to secure the proper kind of receptacles for the refuse from the kitchen. In some cities where the system is lax old boxes and open cans are filled with table refuse, and set out in front of the residences, exposed to the public view and the attention of hungry canines. The latter dig into the receptacles and scatter the contents on the sidewalks. The scavenger man cannot be expected to take the time to collect these scattered fragments, and the consequence is that the streets of many cities are littered with all sorts of decaying articles of food. Paducahans must show more pride than this. Good serviceable cans with lids to them should be secured. Then the cans should be chained to something immovable, so they can not be stolen. It might be well, if such legislation comes within the police powers of a city, to secure an ordinance, prescribing within reasonable limitations the kind of garbage cans to be used.

Cut down the obnoxious weeds. For the sake of the beauty of Paducah; for the benefit of the health of the neighborhood; for the sake of the appearance, and consequently, the saleableness of the property, remove them from the vacant lots. Many nice neighborhoods in Paducah is marred by the presence of a vacant lot, filled with all sorts of ill-smelling, disease-breeding, unsightly weeds, grown shoulder high, and bending low with a harvest of seed. Cut them down this year. Then next year plant a garden on the lot, or grant permission to some poor family to use it. That will not damage the property, and will aid in the efforts of those who desire to make Paducah attractive and healthful.

We soon will know whether or not the lighting committee of the general council made a mistake in letting the contract to the General Electric company. The members of the committee seem to have given the matter careful consideration and they stuck to their decision in the face of all the opposition that could be mustered against them. Apparently they are entirely satisfied that they have done what was best for the city. "The proof of the pudding is in the eating." We soon shall see.

It sounds ridiculous for Pittsburg dispatches to state that an accusation of theft caused consternation among attorneys in the Hartie divorce case. One would think the attorneys and court attendants listening to that case would be impervious to any sensation by this time.

One of the beneficent results of the crusade against the loafers in Paducah has been a rush of laborers to the wharf. Possibly the street contractors could secure the services of some of these.

Let us trust William Jennings Bryan will not become jealous when Ollie James shows him all those cablegrams.

HORRORS OF DRIFTING

Reported by Passengers on the Steam-er America.

New York, July 20.—The Fabre line steamer America, from Bermuda, arrived here today in tow of the tug Rescue. The America while bound from Marcellies to New York, became disabled at sea and was towed to Bermuda by the Italian steamship Dinamara about two weeks overdue. Her passengers said that from the time the accident occurred on June 16, they were provided with inferior and insufficient food. For nine days the vessel drifted at the mercy of wind and waves. On the second day after the accident occurred the passengers said an English steamer was sighted but Captain Buhe made no attempt to signal her. Some of those aboard remonstrated with him and his officers and were locked up below for the remainder of the day as a penalty, the passengers declared.

TO QUIT BUSINESS.

Sewer Pipe Trust Pleads Guilty to Charge of Controlling Prices.

Jamestown, N. Y., July 20.—The Sewer Pipe Trade association familiarly known as the "Sewer Pipe Trust," practically entered a plea of guilty to the charge of a secret contract to limit the production and control the territory and prices of sewer pipe before the federal grand jury in this city today. Harry A. Hall, of Pittsburg, attorney for the association, submitted the proposition that, rather than submit to the proposed investigation by the grand jury, he would enter into an agreement whereby the association would be dissolved and go out of business. The proposition was accepted by the district attorney.

JAIL RATHER THAN TELL AGE
Young Woman of Columbus, O., Defies Court and Keeps Secret.

Columbus, O., July 20.—Rather than tell her age, Miss Tenie Fristoe, defendant in an attachment suit, went to jail today. One of the first questions that the counsel for the opposing side put to her was: "How old are you?" "It's none of your business," came the prompt answer.

The court ordered her to answer the question, warning her of the punishment for contempt but Miss Fristoe remained defiant, and the judge ordered her off to jail. She was released later in the day on a writ of habeas corpus, but the secret of her age is still her own.

What Osteopathy Is.

The question is often asked "What is Osteopathy?" for some people have a very vague idea of this new science that is doing so much to aid mankind. Osteopathy, when well digested, is nothing but good sense and reason. It is a method for treating disease by manipulation, to restore the normal condition of the nerve control and the blood supply to every organ of the body by removing the physical obstructions, or by stimulating, or checking, functional activity, as the conditions may require.

A diseased body is caused by some interference to a working part of the organism, and a correction of it brings restored health. Therefore, osteopathy finds the disturbance and, righting it, effects its cure.

The methods used are scientific manipulation, and no medicines, and they are very successful. Some of the diseases in which osteopathic treatment has been the most effective are headaches of all kinds, nervous disorders, malaria and bilious, tired down and fagged out conditions, indigestion in its many forms, kidney troubles, neuralgia and rheumatism. It treats successfully, however, nearly all diseases. If you are ailing, no matter what your particular trouble may be, I should like to have you call and let me tell you why Osteopathy will cure in your especial case. I do not claim that Osteopathy is a cure-all, but am frank and will tell you what it will do in any individual case, at the same time referring you to people who know, who will gladly tell you what the treatment has done for them.

Man Run Over By Train Able to Talk to Coroner Before Death.

Pittsburg, July 20.—Deputy Coroner Dempsey today received from the lips of a man run over by a train information which was used a few hours afterward at his inquest, the man having expired of his injuries. Deputy Dempsey was called to take charge of the corpse of George Earl, who recently came here from Cleveland, and who had been run over in the Pittsburg and Lake Erie railroad yards. He found Earl alive, although both legs were crushed and his body was a mass of cuts. The injured man joked with Dempsey, as he told how the accident had occurred, and when the testimony was taken down he was conveyed to a hospital, where he died.

LINGUIST

Wanted At Boston Immigration Bureau At $10,000 Salary.

Washington July 20.—The civil service commission announces that the government will pay the handsome emolument of $10,000 a year to the man who can speak fluently Greek, Bulgarian and Syrian and in addition has a working knowledge of Roumanian, Yiddish and Portuguese. Such a linguistic marvel is wanted as an interpreter at the immigration office at Boston.

IN THE COURTS

Police Court.

Police Judge E. H. Puryear this morning, when Ruth Lathup and Lillian Owens who reside on the south side in a respectable neighborhood, were brought before him charged with conducting a disorderly house, left the case open. They alleged that they had or would move at once. He gave them time, and if by tomorrow the houses they occupy are vacant, the prosecution will cease, otherwise they may prepare for a fine.

Gip Poe, charged with stealing a watch and two pearls from Lizzie Roberts, was granted a continuance. He is charged with petty larceny.

Goes to Reform School.

Homer Clark, a 14-year-old boy, was given three years in the reform school this morning by County Judge R. T. Lightfoot for the theft of a bicycle and a subsequent sale of the machine for $6.25. The youth stole a bicycle belonging to J. L. Palmer, colored, and sold it to Riley Cargill, of the Melber section. Officer Gourette worked the case up and arrested Clark yesterday. He broke down. This morning he pleaded guilty and was given three years. He is being held pending transfer to the school at Lexington.

ON SOUTHERN.

Band of Robbers Among Baggage-Men Not Prosecuted.

Charleston, S. C., July 20.—The Southern railway has just discovered a systematized scheme of robbery of baggage on the lines from here to Augusta and Columbia, by which three baggage-masters have been profiting largely for a number of years. The baggage-masters had keys which they used in opening trunks and grips, and removing clothing, watches and valuables. One of the men was in the service of the road for fifteen years. A search of the residences of the men resulted in the recovery of much of the property. The road has decided, however, not to prosecute the baggage-men, contenting itself with simply dismissing them from the service.

Famous Female Spy Dying.

Santa Fe, New Mexico, July 20.—Mrs. A. W. Diet, formerly Miss Georgia T. Reed, a famous spy of the confederates during the civil war, is dying of paralysis in a little building in this city. Although a native of Indiana, she lived with her father, a wealthy druggist, at New Orleans at the outbreak of the war. Her brother fell at Bull Run and she became a nurse. Later, disguised as a soldier and then as a veteran's widow, she entered the union lines repeatedly, securing valuable information, until betrayed by relatives at Westport landing, now Kansas City, Mo. After the war, refusing to take the oath of allegiance, she was banished from Missouri. She came here three years ago for her health.

Government to Aid Unions.

Washington, July 20.—Action of the greatest importance to labor circles is contemplated in directions given by the president to officers in charge of public works at the instance of Secretary Taft. This order is to employ the government's own officers to direct and punish violations of the law of 1902, providing that except in case of emergency, work upon government buildings, ships and other properties shall be limited to eight hours a day for each workman.

CHAMPIONSHIP OF COUNTY SETTLED

L. D. Potter to Meet Marksmen Tomorrow.

Rifle and Pistol Contests At Fifty to Three Hundred Yards Are Arranged.

MAY GO AFTER STATE HONORS.

McCracken county's champion tomorrow when the big shoot will be pulled off and the championship in rifle and pistol marksmanship settled. The events have all been arranged and the shoot will doubtless attract a large crowd of sports to the fair ground range.

Ex-Sheriff L. D. Potter several weeks ago issued a challenge to any and all marksmen in the county. He was not particular as to what the range was, and left this decision to those who took him up. The purse was also another item left to the challengers' decision. As far as the purse is concerned, this is kept in the back-ground, but the following marksmen took him up and the events will be pulled off in this order.

Rifle at 300 yards, Potter against Thomas Bennett and Fred McCreary.

Rifle at 200 yards, Potter against Jack Probus, John Vickery and Thos. Houseman.

Pistol at 50 yards, Potter against John Vickery and Thomas Houseman. Others will enter this event.

Ex-Sheriff Potter believes he can win. He has done some remarkable shooting of late and if he does get the highest averages, will go out after state honors. Just before the holidays he went into a local shooting gallery and won so many turkeys that the proprietor ruled him out. He has got some good, fast material to go against, however.

The affair will begin at 2 o'clock.

OCTOPUS FIGHTERS FEAR BEAR

Cub From the Rockies Causes Trouble.

Washington, July 20.—One cinnamon bear cub from the Rocky Mountains made more trouble today in the trusts against which the department has proceeded. It arrived consigned to C. J. Field, the chief clerk, and was a gift from — H. Long, a special attorney of the government in Durango, Col. A score or more clerks sought in vain to lure the cub from its cage. Some one suggested issuing a summons. Another said consult Milton D. Purdy in charge of the prosecution of the Standard Oil company, who thought that, while an octopus required elaborate machinery to control, a bear should be handled with a rope. This course proved effective, but not until the cub had made a vicious slap at a negro messenger boy who drew the cord too tight about its throat.

RAILROAD NOTES

An Iron Mountain freight train blocked traffic on the Illinois Central main line for more than 12 hours yesterday, and as a result all fast flyers from New Orleans to Chicago and Chicago to New Orleans, had to detour and come via Cairo, Paducah and Fulton. It is the first time this has occurred in the history of the road.

The wreck occurred on a trestle near Arlington, Ky. A freight train was derailed on the trestle and tore up about 100 feet of the structure. Both tracks were blocked. Five cars went into the creek, and the wreck required over 12 hours of hard work for the wrecking crews.

Trains No. 1, 2, 5 and 6, all fast flyers, came through Paducah. Big engines pulled them from Cairo to Paducah and south to Fulton, and the trains of more than half a dozen fine coaches and baggage cars attracted considerable attention.

Engine No. 85 in switching service in the Illinois Central yards, ran into a coach used on the south local and smashed it up last night. The accident was due to the failure of the air to properly work on the engine. The engine was in charge of Engineerman Fred West and Foreman Henry Lewis.

The section of the pleasing mill of the Illinois Central shops torn out by a string of runaway cars Saturday, has been repaired and the pattern makers benches will be removed to their usual places today.

Horse Overcome By Heat.

One of the horses belonging to F. L. Gardner Coal company dropped dead this afternoon on the Broadway road near Arcadia. It was attached to a gravel wagon and the supposition is that it was overcome by the heat.

TOMORROW MORNING THIS SALE STARTS

This is general wind-up of all summer goods, and includes reduced prices on all other suits, skirts and shirt waists that are good in the fall and winter seasons. You will find the sale that starts tomorrow and closes Saturday, July 20, to be one that means money to every one who can attend it. We do not consider the cost of summer goods during this sale. We only know that the money we realize on these goods (no matter how little) is more far-reaching than is a lot of old style goods in our cases next season. This is our last sale and we'd like to see the face of every lady in or near Paducah visit us during this sale.

TOM JOHNSON SATISFIED

To Be Mayor of Cleveland and Not Democratic Chairman.

Columbus, O. July 20.—Mayor Tom L. Johnson declares he is not after the position of chairman of the national Democratic committee. "I am not a candidate for the position of chairman of the Democratic national committee," said Mr. Johnson. "I have no idea of trying to oust Tom Taggart. People do not seem to realize how well I like my present position. I am mayor of Cleveland, and I'm going to run again once or twice. I'm going to run for mayor up there until they defeat me or elect me unanimously."

RIVER NEWS

River Stages.
Cairo	18.6	0.5 rise

Cincinnati	9.1	0.1 rise
Evansville	6.2	0.5 rise
Florence	9.0	0.5 rise
Johnsonville	13.3	1.3 rise
Louisville	3.6	0.0 st'd
Mt. Carmel	1.1	0.1 fall
Nashville	11.6	1.2 rise
Pittsburg	5.3	0.0 st'd
Davis Island Dam ..	3.7	0.9 fall
St. Louis	13.4	0.5 fall
Mt. Vernon	4.7	0.1 fall
Paducah	9.5	1.5 rise

The largest rise in a period of 24 hours for a long time at this point occurred in the last 24 hours when the river rose 1.5 feet the gauge now showing a stage of 9.5 feet. This nearly realizes the government prediction of 10 feet here and as all the water has not passed yet it probably will go higher than that figure. Yesterday the remarkable rise for this time of year of 4.9 feet at Chattanooga in 24 hours will send a considerable volume of water down the Tennessee river. There is still a navigable stage of water between here and Evansville for the large Fowler boats and also between here and Cairo for the Dick Fowler. Heavy rains at this time would make good the present rise for a few weeks.

The Kentucky arrived last night from the Tennessee river with a good trip and left for lower Ohio river points to deliver freight. It will leave here Saturday evening at 6 o'clock on the return trip to the Tennessee river.

The Dick Fowler left on time for Cairo this morning with the goose hanging high, plenty of labor making it easy to load.

The John Hopkins arrived at 7 o'clock last night from Evansville, eight hours late. It left immediately on the return trip. Today the Joe Fowler was the Evansville packet.

The towboat Harth will arrive out of the Ohio river Saturday with a tow of flour spar from Fairview landing.

Oregon fir is being largely used in steamboat and barge construction now. Heretofore oak has been practically the sole timber used but it is becoming scarce. These two kinds of lumber are used on the hulls of boats as they have been shown to be most durable in water. A stick of oak lumber would last forty or fifty years if submerged in water and kept so, but it is the wet timber being exposed to the sun's heat that rots it. The life of a boat's hull is not definite but it is regulated by the condition of the lumber when cut. If it is cut after the sap has gone out, it is much shorter lived than if it is cut green.

The funeral of Benjamin Fletcher will take place here today. He was one of the oldest engineers on the rivers, having been in service on boats for thirty years in that capacity. He was generally liked being thoroughly reliable and good natured.—Cairo Bulletin.

Official Forecasts.

The Ohio at Evansville and Mt. Vernon, will rise slightly during the next 36 hours. At Paducah and Cairo, will continue rising during the next 36 hours.

The Tennessee from Florence to the mouth, will continue rising during the next 36 hours.

The Mississippi from below St. Louis to slightly above Cairo, will continue falling during the next 24 hours.

WOULD REVOKE CHARTERS

Suits Against Amusement Places Violating the Ltd.

St. Louis, July 20.—After a consultation with Assistant Attorney General John Kennish today, Governor Folk announced that who warrants proceedings would be instituted in the supreme court against the Delmar Amusement company, the Suburban Garden, the Creve Coeur Lake association and Meramec Highlands for a forfeiture of charter rights and the seizure of their property for the benefit of the state. The proceedings will be similar to those against the Delmar Jockey club, whose franchises was forfeited and a fine of $5,000 imposed. All will be charged with violating the dramshop and Sunday laws.

Innocent Man Made Insane By Conviction—Culprit Caught.

Manitowoc, Wis., July 20.—Leo Koebel, a farmer, today confessed he committed crimes for which his younger brother was convicted, and for which he is now in the asylum for criminal insane, the shock of the false accusation having wrecked his mind. Koebel admitted to District Attorney Hougren, after suspicion began to point to him, that he set fire to a sawmill belonging to August Lippert, and poisoned several of Lippert's horses. He was placed under arrest.

LIGHTING PLANT PLANS RATIFIED

Both Boards of General Council Act Favorably.

Mayor Yeiser Objects to Terms of Contract but Committee's Report Is Adopted.

MEETING OF THE ALDERMEN.

The contract presented by the General Electric company of New York, in which it proposed to equip the city lighting plant for $11,000, was ratified by both boards of the general council last night. The mayor's disapproval of the contract was strong, but the contract went through without a hitch. The mayor was in addition instructed and authorized to sign it at once, that the work of equipping the plant might begin without any further delay.

Aldermen Meet.
Aldermen Hubbard, Miller and Chamblin were absent.

The minutes of the last regular and adjourned meetings were read and adopted.

The regular order of business was disposed of in order to take up the matter of contracting for equipping the city lighting plant.

Alderman Palmer, chairman of the light committee, read a contract proposed by the General Electric company of New York. It was the same printed previously, and provides for 300 light capacity dynamos with lamps, the old boilers and engines to be used. The cost is $11,000. A motion to accept the proposition, the money to be taken from the contingent fund, was made.

Mayor Yeiser presented a communication from representatives of other electrical firms protesting against the ratification of the contract because they had not been given the proper consideration in the letting of the contract.

Mayor Yeiser then read his disapproval of the contract, saying that the contract, to his mind, was not a good one because of the fact that the city was not properly protected. The contract did not guarantee the plant from 5 to 30 days, the test to be made and passed on by a committee from the legislative boards and Mayor Yeiser declared the company would not agree to this. The company has control of all supplies, and if the system was adopted, would mean that the city would be in the power of the company. The report was filed.

Alderman Hank spoke, stating that for the reason that one-third of the cost of the apparatus has to be paid on receipt, and without tests, he did not believe the company meant well.

Alderman Farley sided with Alderman Hank.

Alderman Palmer stated that the contract is a printed form used altogether by the company in every town where it places contracts, and that the company has not deviated in this instance from its usual custom. Alderman Palmer stated that he could not conceive of the General Electric company with its standing and vast business, selling "queer goods."

Mayor Yeiser, in answer to a query from Alderman Hank, stated that this is the first instance where in any such clauses were inserted regarding pay for equipment, that he could remember.

The motion to ratify the contract was adopted, Alderman Hank voting "nay."

On motion the board adjourned for twenty minutes, and the lower board convened.

Council Meets.
Councilmen Dipple and Herzog were absent.

Mayor Yeiser read his call, which was for passing on the light matter and two bond interest debts. The total amount of interest is $4,958.

The motion to allow the interest account was adopted.

Mayor Yeiser read his opinion adverse to ratifying the contract with the General Electric company of New York. It was received and filed.

Chairman Williamson read the General Electric company's contract, and moved that it be ratified. The motion carried with an addition clause that the mayor be instructed and authorized to sign it. Councilman Van Meter voted "nay."

On motion the board adjourned.

Aldermen Resume.
The aldermen resumed session at 9 o'clock.

Alderman Palmer stated that in the report of the light committee in which Engineer John W. Holmes' name was mentioned, the references made were not in any way to reflect on the engineer. He desired to make this statement in order to set the committee and Engineer Holmes right. Mayor Yeiser asked that the city condemn property necessary to build pavements on Broadway from Sixteenth street to Seventeenth street. Mayor Yeiser also recommended extending pavements to the city limits on Broadway. The former suggestion was favorably acted on.

The matter of referring several prayers from taxpayers to the board of tax supervisors was ratified.

The contract with Thomas Bridges' Sons, of Wabash, Ind., for building a concrete culvert under Caldwell street, near the Illinois Central depot, was ratified.

Mayor Yeiser recommended an ordinance to require flagmen at the Tennessee street and Broadway crossings of the Illinois Central at night. The matter was referred.

Mayor Yeiser suggested an ordinance compelling the street car company to adhere to the franchise agreement by charging one-half fare for children from 5 to 12 years of age. The matter was referred.

A judgment for $107.27, with interest, in favor of E. C. Terrell against the city, was ordered paid.

The board allowed the bond interest debt, allowed by the councilmanic board. It has to be paid by August.

E. H. Puryear, city judge, was authorized to buy several books needed in his court.

The city clerk was instructed to permit the sexton of Oak Grove cemetery to make copies of his record book.

The matter of building a vault in the city engineer's office was referred.

The report of the finance committee, for salaries, and accounts, amounting to $2,963.80, was received and filed.

An ordinance for side-walks on to Husbands street was given second reading.

An ordinance regulating the height of awnings in the business section of the city was given second reading.

An ordinance for side-walks on Fountain avenue from Jefferson street to Monroe street was deferred because the specifications had not been prepared.

An ordinance for side-walks on Jones street from Ninth street to Eleventh street, was given first reading.

The public improvement committee reported an agreement on the class of bridge for Island creek at Fourth street.

Alderman Bell presented an application from William Estes, for a coffee-house license, at 1044 Kentucky avenue. The license was granted.

An application from B. Padgett, at 1533 Broad street, was favorably acted on.

Several complaints of over-assessments on property were referred to the tax supervisors.

Several deeds and transfers of lots in Oak Grove cemetery were ratified.

A contract with Elliott & Ghent to care for the city garbage dump was ratified.

The term of Lycurgus Rice, cow policeman, has about expired, and Alderman Hank thought he should be retained.

On motion the mayor was instructed to keep the cow policeman as long as he deemed it necessary.

Alderman Palmer moved that the board of public works extend city street light wires to the capacity of two hundred lights.

The motion to have the city light plant prepared for receiving the new machinery was adopted.

Alderman Palmer reported progress on the No. 2 sewer district, saying plans would be in the hands of the boards by August 1, and that Mayor Yeiser would at once advertise for bids in order to push the work.

Alderman Farley moved to have an ordinance passed governing the blowing of steam whistles on mills, railroads, and in fact everywhere in the city limits. The motion was adopted.

City Engineer Washington urged speedy action on ordinances now tabled because of controversies.

The sewer work will have to go in first, and street improvements have suffered many delays. Mayor Yeiser stated that he would call a meeting of the boards at any time in order to facilitate the matter. The solicitor was instructed to prepare all ordinances to be presented at once. A controversy over side-walk dimensions is causing the delay.

On motion the board adjourned.

In the Bishop's Carriage

By MIRIAM NICHOLSON

(Copyright, 1904, by The Bobbs-Merrill Co.)

"I didn't answer, I put my head back against the cushions and closed my eyes. I could feel the scrutiny of his blue eyes on my naked face—your face is so unprotected with the eyes closed; like a fort whose battery is withdrawn. But I was tired—it tires you when you care. A year ago, Mag, this sort of thing—the risk, the nearness to danger, the chances one way or the other—would have intoxicated me. I used to feel as though I was dancing on a volcano and daring it to explode. The more twistings and turnings there were to the labyrinth, the greater glory it was to get out. Magie, darling, you have before you a mournful spectacle—the degeneration of Nancy Olden. It isn't that she's lost courage. It's only that she used to be able to think of only one thing, and now—What do you suppose it is, Mag? If you know, don't you dare to tell me."

When we got to the flat Obermuller was already there. At the door I pulled out my key and opened it with a flourish.

"Won't you come in, gentlemen, and spend the evening?" I asked.

They followed me in. First to the parlor. The two fellows threw off their coats and searched that through and through—not a drawer did they miss, not a bit of furniture did they fail to move. Obermuller and I sat there gazing at them as they pried about in their shirt-sleeves. That "Trust business" has taken the life out of him of late. All their tricks, all their queerings, their cheatings, their bossings and bragging and bullying have got on to his nerves till he looks like a chained bear getting a drubbing. And he swears that they're in a conspiracy to freeze him and a few others like him out; he believes there's actually a paper in existence that would prove it. But this affair of the purse seemed to excite him till he behaved like a bad schoolboy.

And I? Well, Nance Olden was never far behind at the Cruelty when there was anything going on. We trailed after them, and when they'd finished with the bedrooms—yours and mine—I asked the big fellow to come into the kitchen with Mr. O—and me, while the blue-eyed detective tackled the dining-room, and I'd get up a lunch for us all.

Mag, you should have seen Fred Obermuller with a big apron on him, dressing the salad while I was making sandwiches. The Cruelty taught me how to cook, even if it did teach me other things. You wouldn't have believed that the Trust had got him by the throat, and was choking the last breath out of him. You wouldn't have believed that our salaries hadn't been paid for three weeks, that our houses were dwindling every night, that—

I was thinking about it all there in the back of my head, trying to see a way out of it—you know if there is such an agreement as Obermuller swears there is, it's against the law—while we rattled on, the two of us, like a couple of children on a picnic, when I heard a crash behind me.

The salad bowl had slipped from Obermuller's fingers. He stood with his back turned to me, his eyes fixed upon that searching detective.

But he wasn't searching any more, Mag. He was standing still as a pointer that's scented game. He had moved the lounge out from the wall, and there on the floor, spread open where it had fallen, lay a handsome elephant-skin purse, with gold corners. From where I stood, Mag, I could read the plain gold lettering on the dark leather. I didn't have to move. It was plain enough—quite plain.

MRS. EDWARD RAMSAY.

Hush, hush, Mag; if you take on so, how can I tell you the rest?

Obermuller got in front of me, as I started to walk into the dining-room. I don't know what his idea was. I don't suppose he does exactly—if it wasn't to spare me the sight of that damned thing.

Oh how I hated it, that purse! I hated it as if it had been something alive that could be glad of what it had done. I wished it was alive that I could tear and rend it and stamp on it and throw it in a fire, and drag it out again, with burned and bleeding nails, to tear it again and again. I wanted to fall on it and hide it; to push it far, far away out of sight; to stamp it down—down into the very bottom of the earth, where it could feel the hell it was making for me.

But I only stood there, stupidly looking at it, having pushed past Obermuller, as though I never wanted to see anything else.

And then I heard that blue-eyed fellow's words.

"Well," he said, pulling on his coat as though he'd done a good day's work, "I guess you'd just better come along with me."

CHAPTER XI.

"DON'T you think you'd better get out of this?" I asked Obermuller, as he came into the station a few minutes after I got there.

"No."

"I do."

"Because?"

"Because it won't do you any good to have your name mixed up with a thing like this."

"But it might do you some good."

I didn't answer for a minute after that. I sat in my chair, my eyes bent on the floor. I counted the cracks between the chair and the floor of the office where the chief was busy with another case. I counted them six times, back and forth, till my eyes were clear and my voice was steady. "You're awfully good," I said, looking up at him as he stood by me. "You're the best fellow I ever knew. I didn't know men could be so good to women. But you'd better go—please. It'll be bad enough when the papers get hold of this, without having them lump you in with a bad lot like me."

He put his hand on my shoulder and gave it a quick little shake. "Don't say that about yourself. You're not a bad lot."

"But—you saw the purse."

"Yes, I saw it. But it hasn't proved anything to me but this: you're innocent, Nance, or you're crazy. If it's the first, I want to stand by you, little girl. If it's the second—good God! I've got to stand by you harder than ever."

Can you see me sitting there, Mag, in the bright, bare little room, with its electric lights, still in my white dress and big white hat, my pretty jacket fallen on the floor beside me? I could feel the sharp blue eyes of that detective Morris feeding on my miserable face. But I could feel, too, a warmth like wine poured into me from that big fellow's voice.

I put my hand up to him and he took it.

"If I'm innocent and can prove it, Fred Obermuller, I'll get even with you for—"

"Do you want to do something for me now?"

"Do?"

"Well, if you want to help me, don't sit there looking like the criminal ghost of the girl I know."

The blood rushed to my face. Nance Olden, a sniveling coward! Me, showing the white feather—me, whimpering like a whipped puppy—me—Nance Olden!

"You know," I smiled up at him, "I never did enjoy getting caught."

"Hush! But that's better."

Tell me now—"

A buzzer sounded. The blue-eyed detective got up and came over to me. "Chief's ready," he said. "This way."

They stopped Obermuller at the door. But he pushed past them.

"I want to say just a word to you, chief," he said. "You remember me, I'm Obermuller, of the Vaudeville. If you'll send those fellows out and let me speak to you just a moment, I'll leave you alone with Miss Olden."

The chief nodded to the blue-eyed detective, and he and the other fellow went out and shut the door behind them.

"I want simply to call your attention to the absurdity and unreasonableness of this thing," Obermuller said, leaning up against the chief's desk, while he threw out his left hand, and to ask you to bear in mind, no matter what appearances may be, that Miss Olden is the most talented girl on the stage to-day; that in a very short time she will be at the top; that just now she is not suffering for lack of money; that she's not a high-roller, but a determined, hard-working little grind, and that if she did feel like taking a plunge, she knows that she could get all she wants from me even—"

"Even if you can't pay salaries when they're due, Obermuller." The chief grinned under his white mustache.

"Even though the Trust is pushing me to the wall; going to such lengths that they're liable criminally as well as civilly, if I could only get my hands on proof of their rascality. It's true I can't pay salaries always when they're due, but I can still raise a few hundred to help a friend. And Miss Olden is a friend of mine. If you can prove that she took this money, you prove only that she's gone mad, but you don't—"

"All right, Obermuller. You're not the lawyer for the defense. That'll come later—if it does come. I'll be glad to bear in mind all you've said, and much that you haven't."

"Thank you. Good night. . . I'll wait for you, Nance, outside."

"I'm going to ask you a lot of questions, Miss Olden," the old chief said, when we were alone. "Sit here, please. Morris tells me you've got more nerve than any woman that's ever come before me, so I needn't bother to reassure you. You don't look like a girl that's easily frightened. I have heard how you danced in the lobby of the Manhattan, and were getting lunch and having a regular picnic of a time when—"

"When he found that purse."

"Exactly. Now, why did you do all that?"

"Why? Because I felt like it. I felt gay and excited and—"

"Not dreaming that that purse was sure to be found?"

"Not dreaming that there was such a purse in existence except from the detective's say-so, and never fancying for an instant that it would be found in my flat."

"Hm!" He looked at me from under his heavy, wrinkled old lids. "You don't get nice eyes from looking on the nasty things in this world, Mag."

"Why," I cried, "what kind of a girl could cut up like that when she was on the very edge of discovery?"

"A very smart girl—an actress; a good one; a clever thief who's used to bluffing. Of course," he added, softly, "you won't misunderstand me. I'm simply suggesting the different kinds of girl that could have done what you did. But, if you don't mind, I'll do the questioning. Nance Olden, he turned suddenly on me, his manner changed and threatening, "what has become of that $300?"

"Mr. Chief, you know just as much about that as I do."

I threw up my head and looked him full in the face. It was over now—all the shivering and trembling and fearing. Nance Olden's not a coward when she's fighting for her freedom; and fighting alone without any sympathizing friend to weaken her.

He returned the look with interest. "I may know," he said, insinuatingly.

"Possibly," I shrugged my shoulder.

Eminent Doctors Praise Its Ingredients.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. John Fyfe, one of the Editorial Staff of THE ECLECTIC MEDICAL REVIEW says of Unicorn root (Helonius Diosa) which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite Prescription":

"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator. . . makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system. He continues: 'In Helonius we have a medication which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent.' Dr. Fyfe further says: 'The following are among the leading indications for Helonius (Unicorn root). Pain or aching in the back, with leucorrhoea; atonic (weak) conditions of the reproductive organs of women, mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women, constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys; menorrhagia (bleeding), due to a weakened condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhoea (suppressed or absent monthly periods), arising from or accompanying an abnormal condition of the digestive organs, and anemic (thin blood) habit; dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen.'"

If more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of the leading ingredients of which is Unicorn root, or Helonius, and the medicinal properties of which it most faithfully represents.

Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says: "It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb, in all catarrhal conditions, and general enfeeblement, it is useful."

Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal root: "In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states."

Prof. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal: "Valuable in atonic hemorrhage, menorrhagia (bleeding) and congestive dysmenorrhoea (painful menstruation)."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription faithfully represents all the above named ingredients and cures the diseases for which they are recommended.

No, it wasn't put on. There never yet was a man who bullied me that didn't rouse the fighter in me. I swore to myself that this old thief-catcher shouldn't rattle me.

"Doesn't it occur to you that under the circumstances a full confession might be the very best thing for you? I shouldn't wonder if these people would be inclined to be lenient with you if you'd return the money. Doesn't it occur—"

"It might occur to me if I had anything to confess—about this purse."

"How long since you've seen Mrs. Edward Ramsay?" He rushed the question at me.

I jumped.

"How do you know I've ever seen her?"

"I do know you have."

"I don't believe you."

"Thank you, neither do I believe you, which is more to the point. Come, answer the question: how long is it since you have seen the lady?"

I looked at him. And then I looked at my glove, and slowly pulled the fingers inside out, and then—then I giggled. Suddenly it came to me—that silly, little insane dodge of mine in the bishop's carriage that day; the girl who had lost her name; and the use all that affair might be to me if ever—

"I'll tell you if you'll let me think a minute," I said, sweetly. "It—it must be all of 15 months."

"Ah! You see I did know that you've met the lady. If you're wise you'll draw deductions as to other things I know that you don't think I do. . . And where did you see her?"

"In her own home."

"Called there," he sneered, "alone?"

"No," I said, very gently. "I went there, to the best of my recollection, with the bishop—yes, it was the bishop, Bishop Van Wageningen."

"Indeed?"

I could see that he didn't believe a word I was saying, which made me happily eager to tell him more.

"Yes, we drove up to the square one afternoon in the bishop's carriage—the fat, plum-colored one, you know. We had tea there—at least, I did. I was to have spent the night, but—"

"That's enough of that."

I chuckled. Yes, Mag Monahan, I was enjoying myself. Yes, I was having a run for my money, even if it was the last run I was to have.

"So it's 15 months since you've seen Mrs. Ramsay, eh?"

"Yes."

He turned on me with a roar.

"And yet it's only a week since you saw her at Mrs. Gates'?"

"Oh, no."

"Not 'Take care!'?"

"That night at Mrs. Gates' it was dark, you know, in the front room. I didn't see Mrs. Ramsay that night. I didn't know she was there at all till—"

"Till?"

"Till later I was told."

"Who told you?"

"Her husband."

He threw down his pencil.

REMOVE GARBAGE UNDER CONTRACT

Plan of City and Bids Will Be Invited.

Householders Must Provide Themselves With Cans for Refuse—To Build Plant.

WOULD DESTROY THE WEEDS. SPORTING BLOOD IS SHOWN.

The board of health will advertise, in a few days, for bids for the collection and daily disposal of all the garbage in the city.

Under a scheme to be put into operation by the board, all householders will be requested to provide garbage cans, and these will be gathered every day and the garbage disposed of.

It was the intention to start the work the first of July, but several things caused the delay, but it will be put into operation now at once.

"Next year," said a member of the board today, "we shall construct an incinerator, and burn the garbage. We shall begin operation early in the spring and by summer will have the entire city in a first class, sanitary condition."

The board requests every one who is not provided with a garbage can to secure one at once, so as to make the work as effective as possible.

The Weed Nuisance.

Another matter that is holding the attention of the members of the board of health is the destruction of weeds on vacant lots in the city. Attempts frequently have been made to eradicate the weed evil, but so far without avail.

Said a member:

"The board of health will attempt again to have weeds cut. Weeds are breeders of disease, especially when they have gone to seed and the smell of them in the hot sun is unpleasant. In some places neighbors have had weeds cut in vacant lots belonging to other persons, because they became such a nuisance."

If we can secure the co-operation of the executive department we will have something done."

B. P. O. E.

In Memory of the Late Judge D. L. Sanders.

It is with feelings of profound sorrow that we realize that death has claimed one of our noblest and our best. Every member of Paducah lodge, No. 217, B. P. O. E., deeply and truly regrets the loss of our honored and faithful brother, Judge D. L. Sanders. He was indeed an ideal citizen, a capable and just judge, a loyal friend and a noble brother Elk.

Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love, and Fidelity, the grand principles of our order, were strongly exemplified in his every thought and act. Fidelity and Brotherly Love were implanted in his very nature, while Charity and Justice—Justice tempered with Mercy—were the prominent and edifying characteristics of his every-day life.

His broad liberality, his genial good nature, his warm friendship and his finely cultivated mind made him the admired and beloved of all who knew him best. "The man dies but his memory lives." That the name of Brother D. L. Sanders will ever occupy the fairest spot in memory's waste is the fond wish of every Paducah Elk. Let us treasure in our hearts his numerous virtues and noble qualities and ever try to emulate them, and thus keep his memory green in our souls.

Resolved, That we tender to his beloved and sorrowing family the sincere sympathy of Paducah lodge 217, with a copy of this humble tribute to the memory of our departed brother, and also that it be made a part of our records and be published in the daily papers.

FANS TO RESCUE OF CAIRO'S TEAM

Sister City Will Remain In The Kitty League.

Money Enough Subscribed to Carry Boys Through the Season—Tickets Sold.

The undertaker was cheated out of a job in Cairo yesterday when Old Sport Baseball did the Phoenix stunt.

The dead has arisen and the fans in Cairo are rejoicing. Healthy, wealthy sports came to the rescue and yesterday just as the ashes of King Baseball were being lowered into the grave, the lid was thrust up and the resurrection occurred.

To Paducah fans it will look like a wise ruse, but anyway, the means adopted served to attain the desired end and the Kitty league will not be "busted." The Cairo Bulletin has this to say of the situation:

"Rather than to see the team go down and out after its brave struggle for existence, the men dug, started a popular subscription which grew with such surprising success that by afternoon a fund sufficient to insure a long and prosperous life to the local team had been raised."

"Large contributions were freely given and in a manner which clearly shows the loyal and enterprising spirit which is uppermost in the hearts of Cairo's citizens and business men."

"In addition to the amount raised yesterday the Commercial club committee will today again start selling the dollar benefit tickets and soliciting additional subscriptions. Yesterday all the money necessary to pay the expenses the remainder of the season, in addition to the average receipts was raised with the exception of about $200. It is not expected that there will be any difficulty experienced in securing this amount."

"Only two players were sold and it is expected that arrangements can be made to retain them."

"Harold Betts, who was formerly in the Kitty league and who has since been making good in the Pacific Coast league, has been signed and will report in a few days. Searles and Wagner have gone to their homes for a rest but will rejoin the team in a week."

Resolution to direct Board of Health to contract for disposal of garbage and refuse matter.

Whereas, there is now no adequate way or method in use to dispose of the garbage and refuse matter of the city, and,

Whereas, it is deemed to be the best interest of the health of the citizens to immediately make arrangements to dispose of same, now, therefore,

Be it resolved, That the Board of Health of the City of Paducah be directed and empowered to advertise for bids, and pursuant thereto, to let to the lowest and best bidder a contract from the first day of June to the first day of October, 1906, to dispose of and clean the city of all garbage and refuse matter of any kind during said period; the contractor awarded said contract to be paid monthly by the City of Paducah according to his contract, and all of said work to be done under the general supervision and control of the Board of Health.

Provided that no contract made under this resolution shall be binding until same is ratified by the General Council.

Approved July 12, 1906.

D. A. YEISER, Mayor.

Attest: HENRY BAILEY, Clerk.

WAS TALLEST MAN IN ELK'S PARADE

John Porteous Also Was Thinnest and Took Two Prizes.

Paducah Boy Attracts Attention Everywhere By His Unique Dimensions.

IN DENVER FOR HIS HEALTH.

John S. Porteous, the Paducah giant, is a walking advertisement for the city, and has won new laurels for his size. He captured double honors at Denver, Colo., in the parade feature of the annual convention of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks.

Mr. Porteous won the first prize for being the tallest Elk in the line of march and first prize for being the thinnest. It is said he so completely outclassed all others that he stood a marked man and not the least trouble was experienced in awarding these prizes. Porteous walked beside a little man for the sake of contrast, but had he selected the tallest in the entire parade it would have mattered little.

Porteous is the son of the late John Porteous and was raised in Paducah. He has been in bad health for the last two years and has spent several months in Asheville, N. C., where his size attracted much attention. He stands 6 feet 10 inches in his stocking feet and is still growing. In Paducah his size is little noticed because he is a familiar figure on the streets, but when he leaves town there is something doing—they all stand by and take notice. Porteous traveled on the road for a time and gave it up because of his health. He did not have any trouble making sales. "They just gave me their orders when I walked in and said 'Howdy'," Porteous declared.

He went from Paducah to Denver for his health, and being an Elk went into the parade. Porteous is the talk of the city, it is said, and Paducah received her share of the advertisement.

Other prizes were awarded as follows:

Band marching contest—Cowboy Band of Idaho Springs, $500.
Best appearance in line—Detroit, $500.
Unique uniforms—Kansas City, $500.
Most attractive float—Central City, Col.—$250. Second, Davenport, Ia., $150.
Most beautiful banner—Atena, Pennsylvania, $150 punch bowl.
Kansas City won the prize for largest number of men in line.

WILL INVESTIGATE.

Police Judge Goes to Inspect Alleged Nuisance.

Police Judge E. H. Puryear said this morning that as the late Judge Sanders gave Matt Miller time in which to reopen a ditch he had closed near Twenty-first and Clark streets, he will this afternoon go out and look at the place himself. Miller is alleged to have stopped the ditch up three weeks ago and has since failed to open it. It caused water to stand.

72 Years Old, Hangs Herself.
Marenta, Okla., July 20.—Mrs. N. J. Weltner committed suicide yesterday by hanging herself to a tree. She was 72 years of age. She took advantage of the absence of her relatives to hang herself. She climbed to the top of a cyclone cave, tied the rope around a limb and slid down the mound.

DUMB; DROWNS WITH AID NEAR

Boy, Unable to Make Desperate Straits Known, Loses Life.

Fort Worth, Tex., July 20.—Because he was deaf and dumb and could not make his desperate condition known to those who could have saved him, Hote Lyle, a 14-year-old boy, lost his life in the Trinity river today. The boy was bathing with some companions and got beyond his depth.

Boonville, Ind., July 20.—John Young, 23 years old, was drowned in the Ohio river near Yankee town, this county, last night while bathing with ten companions. He could not swim and his friends did not realize that he was drowning.

OFFICERS

ELECTED BY CENTRAL LABOR UNION FOR SIX MONTHS.

Big Dance to Be Given August 21 for Benefit of the Fall Labor Carnival.

Central Labor Union elected officers last night for the ensuing six months. The new officers are:

President, Charles Hart, of the blacksmiths.
Vice president, L. B. Langston, of carpenters.
Recording secretary, Henry Carroll of caulkers.
Financial secretary, W. E. Gibson, of retail clerks.
Treasurer, Cecil W. Trotter, of the leather workers.
Guardian, P. L. Smith, of brewery workers.
Guide, J. T. Roberts, of barbers.
Trustees, J. McGarrigal, of the blacksmiths; Robert Hoblin of the electrical workers, and James Edwards, of the painters.
Outside guard, Claude F. Johnson, of typographical union.
Roll clerk, R. M. Myles.

Four new delegates from subordinate lodges were received last night. Among them was Pete Smith, of the leather workers, who has been ill for more than a year of paralysis.

The committee on arrangements for the big fall carnival reported a dance for August 21. The funds will go towards defraying expenses of the carnival.

No action was taken in regard to the unions entering politics and putting out candidates. The subordinate lodges have not all passed on the issue.

WASTE PAPER

CANS PLACED ON PRINCIPAL STREETS OF CAIRO.

Woman's Club Takes Steps to Make That City Clean—Plan Proves Success.

Twenty-five additional waste paper boxes have been placed in the streets of the city by the Cairo Woman's club, under the immediate direction of Mrs. Dewey and Mrs. Lohr, and these ladies request that the boxes be put to the use for which they are intended, to the end that the streets may be kept clear of paper scraps. There are now 71 of these receptacles distributed in the city and if they are properly utilized by the people who usually throw paper into the streets they can be filled twice a week and the streets will be kept neat.

These receptacles are not intended for general refuse, as some people seem to believe, but only for waste paper of which so much is daily thrown into the streets.—Cairo Bulletin.

STEPDAUGHTER

VICTIM OF BRUTAL ASSAULT BY LIVINGSTON COUNTY MAN.

Jack Hart, of Iuka, Under Arrest at Savannah, Tenn.—Sheriff Goes After Him.

Jack Hart a blacksmith, of Iuka, Livingston county, Ky., is under arrest at Savannah, Tenn., on the charge of criminal assault. The assault is alleged to have been committed in Livingston county one year ago and the woman in the case is alleged to be his 13-year-old step-daughter. Sheriff W. D. Bishop passed through Paducah yesterday en route to Savannah to bring his man back. He stated that Hart married the mother of the girl and a few days later is alleged to have assaulted the girl. He left suddenly and managed to elude the authorities. Hart is 40 years old.

WOMAN'S SCREAMS FRIGHTEN THIEF

Miss Opal Down Hears Man At Her Bedroom Window.

Chicken Thief Again Active and He Steals the Fowls From Giles Cummins.

HUNDREDS OF CHICKENS GONE.

Another burglary was frustrated last night at the home of Charley Hart, 324 Washington street. About 1 o'clock Mrs. Hart's sister, Miss Opal Downs, was awakened by hearing a scratching sound on the screen at a window in her room. Her bed was next to the window. Miss Downs pluckily refrained from screaming for a while but the increasing noise determined her to do so. Mr. and Mrs. Hart who sleep in an adjoining room were awakened by her screams and immediately answered.

Police headquarters were communicated with and Patrolman Scott Ferguson was detailed to the case. When he arrived he searched the yard and alley but the prowler had taken the hint and left. Miss Downs does not know whether the man was white or black. She had not been asleep long as they had been to the show at the park and had gotten home late.

Chickens Stolen.

That chicken thief is operating in Paducah again and the latest victim is Mr. Giles Cummins, of West Jackson street. The visitation occurred last night and Mr. Cummins this morning had one rooster left out of a dozen fowls.

The thief invaded the poultry yard and "broke de lock on de hen house door." This makes about the 28th Paducahan to be robbed of his chickens and the matter is becoming serious.

More Chickens Stolen.

Mrs. Lula White, of 1314 Jackson street, reports the loss of eighteen chickens. Evidently the thief who got the Cummings' fowls also visited Mrs. White's residence.
